U.S. Probation Officer Action:

Throughout his term of supervised release, Santangelo did not comply with no new debt special condition. On November 30, 2021, our office conducted an Equifax credit inquiry and it revealed Santangelo opened two (2) credit accounts without the approval of the U.S. Probation Office. It is noted the debt incurred was not egregious and totaled $548. He has complied with all other standard and special conditions.

Frank Santangelo

Throughout his term of supervised release, Santangelo has paid $4,456.92 towards his fine. The individual under supervision's term of supervision is due to expire on March 21, 2022, with an outstanding fine balance of $1,793.08. The Financial Litigation Unit of the United States Attorney's Office was notified of the expiration of supervision and has a standing order for garnishment of the person under supervision's earnings and all future income tax refunds via the Treasury Offset Program (TOP). This Office recommends the supervision term be allowed to expire as scheduled since the restitution order remains imposed as a final judgment, pursuant to Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 3554 & 3613.

We are requesting no formal Court action at this time and that Santangelo be allowed to complete supervision on March 21, 2022. The Probation Form 12A (Report on Offender under Supervision), will also serve as an official written reprimand from the Court.

Respectfully submitted,

SUSAN M. SMALLEY, Chief
